

August 1

“A single word from an interior soul is better than the longest sermon in the world.” St. Julie Billiart

August 2

“You will have more ups and downs; you must expect them, for that is how we all are.” St. Julie Billiart

August 3

“Recognize your powerlessness to produce any good in the soul of your neighbor. All we do is nothing at all if the good God does not come to our help.” St. Julie Billiart

August 4

“You know the good God can only be heard in a calm state of mind and not in that mental agitation into which we sometimes fall by our own fault.” St. Julie Billiart

August 5

“We must depend entirely on grace to say what is to the point; or to say nothing if we do not find the person well disposed.” St. Julie Billiart

August 6

“The good God who governs all shows us that in His goodness, He has care of us.” St. Julie Billiart

August 7

“Let us do the work of the Lord with great faith, in a great spirit of charity.” St. Julie Billiart

August 8

“Be simple in all things and the spirit of the good God will dwell in you.” St. Julie Billiart

August 9

“We cannot act with too much prudence, wisdom, and discretion towards all...where the glory of God is at stake.” St. Julie Billiart

August 10

“We live in uncertain times where we have to fight against many enemies...You can see that the good God is obviously helping us.” St. Julie Billiart

August 11

“We shall never be able to do enough for a God who is so good towards us.” St. Julie Billiart

August 12

“Good will alone is not enough; it must also be put into practice.” St. Julie Billiart

August 13

“God alone is necessary for His work since He has permitted things to be as they are.” St. Julie Billiart

August 14

“Leave well enough alone and go on gently with patience, charity, kindness, peace, and without worry.” St. Julie Billiart

August 15

“However harsh God’s dealing with us may seem to be, He is an infinitely wise, just and good God.” St. Julie Billiart

August 16

“Let us try to learn from times of privation how to make better use of the further benefits the good God wants to grant us and which we need so much.” St. Julie Billiart

August 17

“Ask of the good God the spirit of perseverance in everything. He is quite willing to give us all kinds of things, but we must ask Him for them.” St. Julie Billiart

August 18

“We do not come into Notre Dame to do for the good God what can be done in the world.” St. Julie Billiart

August 19

“We must be gently without weakness. The good God gives the right balance.” St. Julie Billiart

August 20

“If we live without desire, we live peacefully in God – all for Him, all for His greater glory.” St. Julie Billiart

August 21

“How hard and yet joyfully we must fight against temptations and not be afraid of them. The crown is reserved only for those who fight.” St. Julie Billiart

August 22

“Do not allow yourself to be too harassed, but reanimate your faith in order to carry the yoke of the Lord cheerfully.” St. Julie Billiart

August 23

“Above all, do not give way to fear. The good God is our strength.” St. Julie Billiart

August 24

“Courage! The more crosses you have, the more your soul will grow. Let the good God act.” St. Julie Billiart

August 25

“Love the good God, desire only Him in everything you do and all will go well.” St. Julie Billiart

August 26

“The good God can give more than our minds can conceive. Trust Him.” St. Julie Billiart

August 27

“Let your one aim be to love the good God and to serve Him, but to do both well.” St. Julie Billiart

August 28

“As long as you belong utterly to the good God, I am not worried about the rest. He is our good Father.” St. Julie Billiart

August 29

“See how different the good God’s way of thinking is from ours! Receive with thanksgiving whatever He sends you.” St. Julie Billiart

August 30

“Always begin by gentleness; that is the way the spirit of the good God inspires.” St. Julie Billiart

August 31

“Ask the Lord for the grace of doing always what is most pleasing to Him, what will glorify Him most.” St. Julie Billiart