

November 1

“I hope that the feast of All Saints has given you courage to advance in the vocation to which the good God has called you.” – St. Julie Billiart

November 2

“The good God will give you grace and light to know what is right at the time.” – St. Julie Billiart

November 3

“We must steadfastly ask the good God for patience and courage. Without this we should be very poor Sisters of Notre Dame – very poor indeed.” – St. Julie Billiart

November 4

“Let us put all our trust in the Lord. The more difficult the times are, the more we must expect from the goodness of God.” – St. Julie Billiart

November 5

“Pray to the good God that He may bless the crosses which He sends us. As long as He is with us, all will go well.” – St. Julie Billiart

November 6

“In adversity as well as in prosperity we shall say again and again that God is good— infinitely good.” —St. Julie Billiart

November 7

“Pray to the good God that He may bless the crosses which He sends us. As long as He is with us, all will go well.” —St. Julie Billiart

November 8

“Offer to God, as far as possible, your whole self and all your interests. By doing this, you will find the true way to peace of soul.” —St. Julie Billiart

November 9

“Proceed by the way of love of the good God. It is the shortest way. Live in continual gratitude to the good God.”

November 10

“Your perseverance in daily prayer will earn you many graces. The good God will bless your good will.” —St. Julie Billiart

November 11

“I see more and more how much we must trust in the Lord; He is our only strength and stay in all things.” —St. Julie Billiart

November 12

“We must be patient, you and I. Things do not go quite straight in the life... Wait with patience for the moments of the good God.” —St. Julie Billiart

November 13

“Walk in all simplicity and uprightness in the ways of the Lord for it is there you will find the purity of heart and mind which gives us humility.” —St. Julie Billiart

November 14

“Patience! We cannot have at once everything we desire. We must wait for the Lord.” —St. Julie Billiart

November 15

“May Mary, our loving Mother, be your consolation. You will find her at the foot of the Cross of her beloved Son.” —St. Julie Billiart

November 16

“How good it is to put our trust in God who remains immovable. Let us rely on Him for everything.” —St. Julie Billiart

November 17

“Happy, a thousand times happy the one who no longer seeks anything but the pleasure of the good God in everything.” —St. Julie Billiart

November 18

“If we love the good God, we do all things well. If not, whatever talent, whatever cleaverness we may have accomplishes nothing for heaven.” —St. Julie Billiart

November 19

“Without doubt, we are to leave ourselves in the hands of the good God. But our good Master knows that our human nature needs some human help... We must provide that help.” —St. Julie Billiart

November 20

“The more difficulties you see in what the good God shows you to do, the more you must take courage. All will go well provided you do your duty as best you can.” —St. Julie Billiart

November 21

“Let us go on day by day. Our life will never be long enough to thank the good God because He is good and His mercy is eternal.” —St. Julie Billiart

November 22

“Let us do our best and ask God to do the rest, or rather, let Him do all with our cooperation.” —St. Julie Billiart

November 23

“Do you know something? It is that the good God is not always pleased when we ourselves are. Do not let us deceive ourselves on that point.” —St. Julie Billiart

November 24

“It is in prayer that you will find help against all the ups and downs which are inseparable from this wretched life; there are just more or less of them.” —St. Julie Billiart

November 25

“Courage! Do not be surprised at your faults, but do not pass over them either, for that would not be the means of advancing in perfection.

November 26

“We must have boundless charity, but it must be enlightened charity. Otherwise it is not the charity the good God asks of us, nor is good done in God’s way.” —St. Julie Billiart

November 27

“Try to grasp how important it is to be well formed. It is in the school of our good Jesus, meek and humble of heart, that we must learn all His lessons.” —St. Julie Billiart

November 28

“Take all your weaknesses to the Holy Spirit so that the fire of His holy love may consume them all. He is the spirit of burning love.” —St. Julie Billiart

November 29

“You will see, when the good God is willing to intervene in something we come out all right.” —St. Julie Billiart
