

June 1

“Live in great peace and charity keeping yourselves closely united to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.” St. Julie Billiart

June 2

“Courage! Make all the sacrifices the good God asks of you.” St. Julie Billiart

June 3

“My God, grant us the grace not to lose sight of the account we must render to You of ourselves and of others.” St. Julie Billiart

June 4

“To do some good, it must cost something. Nothing is given away free. Souls are not won without trouble.” St. Julie Billiart

June 5

“We have our great Patroness, our good Mother to watch over us. Put your trust in her and no harm will come to you.” St. Julie Billiart

June 6

“A simple soul is the delight of God and the Holy Spirit reposes in her as in His temple.” St. Julie Billiart

June 7

“How good a thing to lean on Him who alone is unchangeable.” St. Julie Billiart

June 8

“How the good God loves hearts which appreciate the value of His gifts.” St. Julie Billiart

June 9

“It is in the Divine Heart of Jesus that we should live and die.” St. Julie Billiard

June 10

“May you have all those things which will best please the Heart of our good Jesus.” St. Julie Billiard

June 11

“It is always by way of sacrifice that the Lord wants to lead us to Himself.”
St. Julie Billiard

June 12

“We are what we want to be by the efforts we are willing to make.” St. Julie Billiard

June 13

“Try to have liberty of spirit in order to do what the good God shows you.”
St. Julie Billiard

June 14

“Let us rest n God – He turns all things to good for those who love Him.” St. Julie Billiard

June 15

“Our hearts must be always ready to will all that the good God asks of us.”
St. Julie Billiard

June 16

“We must be souls ready for sacrifices if we wish to be worthy of the vocation to which we are called.” St. Julie Billiard

June 17

“There must be nothing little among us; we must have the hearts of Apostles.” St. Julie Billiard

June 18

“Let us look at our daily tasks with the eyes of faith.” St. Julie Billiard

June 19

“We must go on leaving ourselves totally in the hands of the good God for everything.” St. Julie Billiard

June 20

“Let us die to ourselves in order to live no longer but by the life of God, the life of faith.” St. Julie Billiard

June 21

“Charity never ruins anything, for charity comes from the good God.” St. Julie Billiard

June 22

“God’s peace will reign in the heart of each one of us, and we shall do our best to bring it into the hearts of others.” St. Julie Billiard

June 23

“May the peace of the Lord be always with you. May the peace of the Holy Spirit dwell in your hearts.” St. Julie Billiard

June 24

“Be very careful not to be agitated about success or failure.” St. Julie Billiard

June 25

“...there is no risk if it pleases the good God.” St. Julie Billiard

June 26

“With the help of the good God all will go well, provided we do not go faster than He does.” St. Julie Billiart

June 27

“There must be times of trial. The good God arranges them for all of us.” St. Julie Billiart

June 28

“We must look not so much at the difficulties we meet in doing good as at the glory it can give to the good God.” St. Julie Billiart

June 29

“It is the best thing in the world not to hurry if we do not see things clearly enough. My heart utters but one cry. “My God, what do You want me to do?” St. Julie Billiart

June 30

“Man proposes and the good God disposes. May His most just and wise will be done in every event.” St. Julie Billiart