

October 1

“I can tell you that the good God grants us many graces by calling us to His holy service. Do not be afraid of the obstacles we meet on the way.” St. Julie Billiart

October 2

“There is nothing more contrary to the Spirit of God in prayer than wanting to see and understand everything.” St. Julie Billiart

October 3

“Let us ask that God may send us His spirit of charity, of goodness, of simplicity which makes us docile to the guidance of the Holy Spirit.” St. Julie Billiart

October 4

“Let us leave ourselves in the hands of the good God for everything. He will be our mainstay, our light, and our counsel in all things.” St. Julie Billiart

October 5

“At with all possible liberty of mind and heart, always in God and for God. Let us never lose sight of His good pleasure.” St. Julie Billiart

October 6

“Do your best and after that, go on simply. God gives the growth when it pleases Him.” St. Julie Billiart

October 7

“Be of good heart! If the good God is with you, no evil can happen to you. I promise you that in His name.” St. Julie Billiart

October 8

“Let us turn to God in beginning our actions, then try as far as we can to preserve His holy presence, and abandon all else to His providence.” St. Julie Billiart

October 9

“We have to let the good God do as He likes. He is so good that He cannot want anything but what is very good for us and for God’s greater glory.” St. Julie Billiart

October 10

“If you find in your heart a constant desire to belong to God, whatever it may cost, all is well. Be at peace.” St. Julie Billiart

October 11

“May everything in us be very humble; all of us have reason to be so, having nothing good in us at all.” St. Julie Billiart

October 12

“Never lose sight of the fact that you are consecrated to the good God and must advance every day in perfection.” St. Julie Billiart

October 13

“Cast off this spirit of servitude and take on the liberty of the children of God.” St. Julie Billiart

October 14

“Understand this once and for all; the good God does not ask as much of us as we often want to do.” St. Julie Billiart

October 15

“We must not grow tired of waiting for the most favorable time; the good God has waited so long for us.” St. Julie Billiart

October 16

“Let us support each other by our prayers which are feeble in themselves but strong through the merits of Jesus Christ.” St. Julie Billiart

October 17

“Let us pray ever more and more that the reign of Christ may extend over the whole world.” St. Julie Billiart

October 18

“Let us accept the sorrows which come to us from the hand of our good Father. Let us rest quietly in His will.” St. Julie Billiart

October 19

“Without religion, there is no true happiness in the world. Everything else is only an illusion of happiness.” St. Julie Billiart

October 20

“All that is undertaken at His divine will and is marked by the sign of the Cross succeeds.” St. Julie Billiart

October 21

“Go on from moment to moment. It is the surest way of doing the holy will of God.” St. Julie Billiart

October 22

“You shall enjoy peace if you are full of charity and if you are faithful to your prayer.” St. Julie Billiart

October 23

“Courage, strength, and above all, simplicity in order not to allow yourself to be troubled.” St. Julie Billiart

October 24

“From time to time, God grants us a sweetness which encourages us so that when it is absent we may remember that God’s help is indeed here.”
St. Julie Billiart

October 25

“We are quite capable of spoiling the work of grace within us; so it is often a great advantage for us to feel forsaken.” St. Julie Billiart

October 26

“However dry your prayer may appear to you, by your spirit of faith and sacrifice, you will always find in it support for the way.” St. Julie Billiart

October 27

“Many times the Bishop of Ghent has said to me, “Mère Julie, it is your vocation to go anywhere in the world; you are not made to stay in only one diocese.” St. Julie Billiart

October 28

“I am not worried, I leave all this trouble to the providence of the good God.” St. Julie Billiart

October 29

“I do not think of what people say or think of me; I want to have God for my judge.” St. Julie Billiart

October 30

“I pray to God for the living that He may sanctify them and for the dead that He may ease their sufferings.” St. Julie Billiart

October 31

“God asks of me only to lean on Him and to be led by all the marks He has always given me of His providence, to abandon myself completely into His hands.” St. Julie Billiart